

Dallas Area International Chambers of Commerce

African Chamber of Commerce Dallas Fort Worth

<http://www.africanchamberdfw.org/>

1402 Corinth, Suite 249, Dallas TX, 75215

Telephone: (214) 421-6155

The African Chamber of Commerce DFW promotes trade, commerce, and cultural exchange through education between the United States and countries of the African Diaspora. We provide unity among all people through various networking opportunities. The activities of the African Chamber of Commerce D/FW include, but not limited to, the promotion and coordination of economic development, trade and investment. Relationships with local, state, national, international businesses and governments are established.

The American Moroccan Association of North Texas (AMANT)

<http://www.gomorocco.org>

17194 Preston Road, Suite 102-122, Dallas, TX 75248

Telephone: (214) 402-5902

The American Moroccan Association of North Texas is a non-profit association dedicated to facilitate relations and close cooperation among its members and the general public, promoting education, advancing cultural exchange, furthering professional development, and enhancing trade opportunities between Morocco and the US.

Asian Professional Exchange (APEX) Dallas

<http://www.apexdallas.org>

PO Box 831264, Richardson, TX 75083

APEX represents an ongoing effort to address and support the interests of Asian American professionals in the Dallas area. Operating as a non-profit organization, APEX is dedicated to providing its members with opportunities for developing professional and leadership skills, promoting cultural awareness, and encouraging community service.

Association of Chinese Professionals (ACP) Foundation

<http://www.acpdfw.org>

The ACP Foundation, DFW (or simply ACP) was formerly the Association of Chinese Professionals, DFW (ACP-DFW). ACP-DFW was founded in 1993 and registered in the state of Texas as a non-political and non-profit organization. In 2006, ACP-DFW became the ACP Foundation, DFW. The mission of the organization is to promote and facilitate education, community friendship, professional cooperation, and peer-to-peer knowledge sharing.

British American Business Council of North Texas

<http://www.babcdfw.org/>

P.O. Box 742551, Dallas, Texas 75374-2551

Phone: 214.229.8801

The BABC Dallas - Fort Worth is a member of the British-American Business Council, the largest international network of 33 British-American associations and Chambers of Commerce located throughout the US, the UK, Canada, and Mexico. We offer a varied program, its aim being to provide for the exchange of business information, fostering of new business trends, and opportunities for those involved in transatlantic trade.

Finnish American Business Guild

<http://www.fabg.org>

The purpose of the Finnish-American Business Guild is to foster cooperation and networking among Finnish-related

Last updated January 2008. Source: International Business. Office of Economic Development.

Office of Economic Development
214-670-3319
www.Dallas-EcoDev.org

Dallas Area International Chambers of Commerce

businesses, their local service providers, potential partners, suppliers and customers. Our missions are to: promote North Texas as a great place for Finnish companies to establish a U.S. headquarters, increase awareness of the Finnish culture especially proliferation of Finnish companies developing best-in-class technology and demonstrating a can-do attitude, facilitate world-class informational and educational sessions for members and the community, generate business leads and act as a networking hub, allow outreach and volunteerism for members, and provide fun and camaraderie.

French-American Chamber of Commerce Dallas/Fort Worth

<http://www.faccdallas.com/>

2665 Villa Creek Drive Suite 214, Dallas TX 75234

Phone: (972) 241-0111

The French-American Chamber of Commerce in the United States is a bi-national, non-profit organization that seeks to contribute through the efforts of our chapters and members to the development and improvement of economic, commercial and financial relations between France and the United States. We do this by promoting the French American business community and supporting French and American companies in their trade needs.

Dallas Committee on Foreign Relations

<http://www.dallascfr.org>

5550 LBJ Freeway, Suite 380, Dallas, Texas 75240

Phone: (972) 455-4905

The Dallas Committee on Foreign Relations provides a forum of leaders from business, government and academia who have an active interest in foreign policy and international affairs. The Committee is a non-partisan, not-for-profit organization whose members are elected without regard to age, sex, race or political affiliation.

Dallas Japanese Association

<http://www.godja.org/>

4100 Alpha Rd., Suite 917, Dallas, Tx 75244

Phone: (972) 458-0478

Founded in 1983, the Dallas Japanese Association is a non-profit organization. The association seeks to fulfill two purposes; cultural enhancement and understanding. The association's members, about 500 families in the Metroplex, participate in several endeavors aimed at enhancing Japanese educational and cultural pursuits, enriching their lives. The association is equally committed to developing friendship and mutual understanding in the Metroplex area on personal and institutional levels.

Dallas Market Center - International Development Office

http://www.dallasmarketcenter.com/dmc/v40/index.cvn?id=10015&p_navID=60&stab=4

2100 Stemmons Freeway MS 120, Dallas, TX 75207

Phone: 214- 655-6145

The Dallas Market Center offers hundreds of thousands of products and manufacturers from around the world, all in one beautiful location. With more than 6.9 million square feet of exhibit space, it is the largest wholesale trade facility in the world. More than 200,000 buyers come to Dallas from 84 countries and all 50 states every year, bringing together the newest products, manufacturers and latest trends. For international buyers, the opportunities are limitless. International buyers have access to this unmatched product selection, as well as expert assistance in all aspects of travel, entertainment, and international business services to make their buying experience at the Dallas Market Center profitable, powerful and focused.

Last updated January 2007. Source: International Business. Office of Economic Development.

Office of Economic Development
214-670-3319
www.Dallas-EcoDev.org

Dallas Area International Chambers of Commerce

German American Chamber of Commerce of the Southern United States

http://usa.atlanta.ahk.de/north_texas.html?&L=15

Phone: (972) 437-5705.

Texas and especially the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex have been and continue to be a major trading partner of Germany. The German American Chamber of Commerce of the Southern United States (GACC South) was founded in 1978 to promote and support bilateral trade between Germany and the US. We are a private, non-profit organization and serve as the official representative of German trade in the southeastern US.

Greater Dallas Chamber of Commerce

www.dallaschamber.org

The Chamber's International Business Development division seeks to unite and engage the region's international business community to promote economic growth. Chamber volunteers guide our team with respect to our programming, the generation of global trade and investment opportunities, and our positions on legislation impacting area businesses' ability to compete globally.

Greater Dallas Asian American Chamber of Commerce

<http://www.gdaacc.com/>

11171 Harry Hines Blvd. Ste#115, Dallas, TX 75229

Phone: (972) 241-8250

The Greater Dallas Asian American Chamber of Commerce is positioned to be the focal point of Asian American economic development and cultural exchange. We are strategically located in the heart of the newly established Asian Trade District in Northwest Dallas and are the largest Asian American Chamber in the United States. Our mission is to advocate for the Asian American business community while assisting the economic development in North Texas. As a non-profit organization our core values are excellence in business and leadership, cultural diversity, accountability, and collaboration.

Greater Dallas Hispanic Chamber of Commerce

<http://www.gdhcc.com>

4622 Maple Ave., Suite 207, Dallas, Texas 75219

Phone: 214-521-6007

Our mission is to develop, promote and protect Hispanic businesses in the greater Dallas area and to support the advancement, education and economic growth of the Hispanic business community. The Chamber shall serve as a business resource, a forum and advocate for Hispanic business issues and a united voice for the Hispanic business community.

Greater Dallas Indo-American Chamber of Commerce

<http://www.gdiacc.org>

5930 LBJ Freeway, Suite 350, Dallas, TX 75240

Phone: (214) 346-9559

The Greater Dallas Indo-American Chamber of Commerce is a non-profit organization created by successful Americans of Indian origin, wanting to further encourage and facilitate trade between the United States and India. In addition to international trade, the GDIACC promotes commerce in local markets, helping member companies network and grow their businesses within the U.S. Our mission is to foster dynamic, profitable and growing partnerships between businesses, individuals and associations of greater Dallas and India.

Last updated January 2008. Source: International Business. Office of Economic Development.

City of Dallas

Office of Economic Development
214-670-3319
www.Dallas-EcoDev.org

Dallas Area International Chambers of Commerce

Greater Dallas Korean American Chamber of Commerce

<http://www.koreanchamber.org>

P.O. Box 29409, Dallas, TX 75229

Phone: (972) 488-2224

North Texas & Collin County Taiwanese Chamber of Commerce

<http://www.ntcctcc.org>

Swedish American Chamber of Commerce

<http://www.sacctx.com/>

3832 Kimbrough Lane, Plano, TX 75025

Phone: (469) 644-2309

Founded in Houston in 1983, the Swedish-American Chamber of Commerce, Texas, is a state-wide trade association with active offices in Austin, Dallas and Houston. As the only SACC chamber in the greater south central region of the United States, SACC-Texas is fully committed to provide an active forum for the promotion of direct trade and investment between Sweden and Texas including its neighbor states. SACC Texas is one of 18 active Swedish Chambers of Commerce in the USA, working closely together in SACC USA, an umbrella organization, jointly controlled by the local chambers and major corporate members.

Taiwanese Chamber of Commerce of Dallas/Fort Worth

<http://www.tccdfw.org/>

1417 Chesterton Dr., Richardson, TX 75080

Phone: (817) 723-3073

Thai Commerce Association

<http://www.thaica-dfw.org>

The Thai Commerce Association is a non-profit organization formed in January of 2004 to advocate the advancement of Thai-Americans within both professional and business communities. Our mission is to promote Thai commerce through the advancement of Thai-Americans professionally and socially within the Thai, Asian and American communities in part and in whole.

U.S.-China Chamber of Commerce of Dallas

<http://www.uscccdallas.org/>

3172 West Parker Rd, Plano, TX 75075

Phone: (972) 618-9889

The major function of USCCC is to promote the US China business trade and bilateral business relationship, provide professional advice and solution for its members and interested partners to their business needs. We also organize trade missions and seminars throughout the year in order to service all members for the business development between US and China. We want the chamber as a bridge for all the members to reach out to the world market especially to China, and China business entities to the US market as well.

U.S.-Mexico Chamber of Commerce Southwest Chapter

<http://www.usmcoc.org>

901 Main Street, 43rd Floor, Dallas, TX 75202

Phone: 214.747.1996

The United States-Mexico Chamber of Commerce is the leading bi-national business organization working to build

Last updated January 2008. Source: International Business. Office of Economic Development.

Office of Economic Development
214-670-3319
www.Dallas-EcoDev.org

Dallas Area International Chambers of Commerce

mutually beneficial trade and investment relationships in the Americas. The organization's mission is to promote business between the United States and Mexico.

U.S.-Pan Asian American Chamber of Commerce Southwest Chapter

<http://www.uspaacc-sw.org>

202 E. Border Street, Suite 324, Arlington, Texas 76010

Phone: (817)272-0257

The US Pan Asian American Chamber-Southwest is as an affiliate of national USPAACC headquartered in Washington, D.C. Founded in 1984, national USPAACC has been hard at work to promote business opportunities for major corporations and Asian American owned businesses across the United States. Our mission is to represent all Asian American groups in business by promoting and nurturing the personal and professional development of Asian Americans and their business partners in corporate America and the government.

World Affairs Council of Dallas/Fort Worth

www.dfwworld.org

325 North St. Paul Street, Suite 2200, Dallas, TX 75201

Phone: (214) 965-8400

The non-profit, nonpartisan Council was established in 1951 in Dallas and in 1961 in Fort Worth to educate citizens on the crucial issues of international affairs and foreign policy. In 2006, the two Councils unified to create a strong regional organization. Today, the World Affairs Council of Dallas/Fort Worth presents more than 80 programs a year that enlighten and entertain North Texans.

Last updated January 2008. Source: International Business. Office of Economic Development.

Office of Economic Development
214-670-3319
www.Dallas-EcoDev.org